Type of vendors we're looking for- We are looking for vendors passionate about their craft, whether it be knitting, crochet, spinning, weaving, rug hooking or in any way yarn/fiber related please feel free to apply with several high quality photos of your booth. Please email photos directly to kelly@allentownfiberfestival.com.

Electricity is free for all indoor vendors, please bring your own surge protectors and extension cords to reach the closest available outlet, please let Kelly know if you need any wires taped down for safety.

In addition, Wifi is also available for free for inside vendors, passwords will be provided. However, due to the high demand for internet access at last years show, please use your own data if you have it and if you are on the house wifi please refrain from web surfing so others can have access, we are doing our best to rectify this problem for the coming year, but if we all work together I think we can manage.
